

Dermatology Training Course

Sunday, November 13, 2022 ✦ 8:00am to 5:00pm CET
Berlin, Germany

COURSE SUMMARY:

This course brings a balance of didactic and hands-on approach to the use of the new fractional handpiece in different cosmetic applications. It is aimed at helping clinicians who would like to improve the overall appearance of the perioral area and enhance their ability to better serve their patients.

A one-day course in which the attendee will learn about the different techniques that can be performed with different laser systems in combination to achieve an improved cosmetic appearance of the patient. This course is built on three complementary pillars:

- ✦ THE SCIENCE – It is imperative that any professional has knowledge on the basics and fundamentals of laser and cosmetics. Scientific literature will be used to support clinical protocols taught during the course.
- ✦ THE CLINICAL – A clinical history with an integrative vision for a cosmetic approach. Laser protocols will be provided to perform cosmetic procedures with great results. Possibilities of fillers in combination with laser systems.
- ✦ THE BUSINESS – The aim is to equip the clinician with knowledge but also with modern technology that will afford each clinician with the opportunity to stand out as the expert.
